PURPOSE AND GENERAL PRINCIPLES
This California Consumer Privacy Act Notice (Notice) is provided by Chicanos Por La Causa, Inc. and its affiliated companies as described under Section “CPLC Companies Providing This Notice” herein (collectively, “CPLC”). These companies are also referred to in this Notice as “we” or “us.”

This Notice explains how we collect, use, retain, and disclose personal information about California residents, at or before the point of collection. The Notice also explains certain rights that California residents have under the California Consumer Privacy Act, as amended by the California Privacy Rights Act (the “CCPA”). Our website Legal and Privacy Notices further describe our policies and practices related to your privacy.

The CCPA only applies to information about residents of California. If you are not a resident of California, you may submit a request that we stop collecting or sharing your personal information, and we may process it, as described in this Notice, even though the CCPA does not require us to do so. In accepting, processing, and responding to requests by individuals who are not California residents, we will apply the same limitations and exceptions under the CCPA as requests made by California residents. We reserve the right to change or stop the practice of accepting requests from U.S. individuals who are not California residents.

PERSONAL INFORMATION UNDER THE CCPA
“Personal Information” is defined by the CCPA as any information that identifies, relates to, describes, can be reasonably be associated with, or could reasonably be linked, directly or indirectly, with a resident or household.

Personal Information does not include publicly-available information lawfully made available from federal, state, or local records, and de-identified or aggregated consumer information. Aggregated information includes Internet Protocol addresses, browser type, device type, operating system, page views, referring URLs, destination URLs, dates and times of site visits, and other information collected primarily for statistical purposes. The CCPA also exempts certain types of information such as medical information and consumer credit reporting information.
CATEGORIES OF PERSONAL INFORMATION WE COLLECT AND SHARE ABOUT CONSUMERS

CONSUMER PERSONAL INFORMATION RIGHTS

California residents have the right to know what Personal Information of theirs CPLC has collected, sold, or shared, and to whom. See sections “Rights and Requests under the CCPA” and “How to Make Requests” below for more information.

CATEGORIES OF THIRD PARTIES AND OUR DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

The categories of third parties to whom we disclose Personal Information about a specific individual depend on, among other things, our relationship or interaction with a specific California resident. Such third parties include:

- Government agencies, including in instances to provide services and satisfy regulatory and legal requirements
DATA RETENTION
We retain your Personal Information for as long as reasonably necessary to fulfill the transactions you have requested or for legitimate business purposes, such as complying with CPLC legal obligations with federal, state, and local laws. Under our record retention policy, we are required to destroy Personal Information we no longer need according to specific retention periods. However, we may need to hold Personal Information beyond these retention periods due to regulatory requirements or in response to a regulatory audit, investigation, or other legal matters. These requirements also apply to our third-party service providers.

RIGHTS AND REQUESTS UNDER THE CCPA
The CCPA defines a “sale” as the disclosure of Personal Information for monetary or other valuable consideration. CPLC does not sell Personal Information, including Sensitive Personal Information that is subject to the CCPA’s sale limitation.

If you are a California resident, you have the right to request that we:

1. Disclose to you the following information covering the 12-month period prior to your request (“Request to Know”):
   a. The categories of Personal Information we collected about you;
   b. The categories of sources from which we collected the Personal Information;
   c. The business or commercial purpose for collecting Personal Information about you;
   d. The categories of third parties to whom we disclosed Personal Information about you, and the categories of Personal Information disclosed; and
   e. The specific pieces of Personal Information we collected about you;
2. Delete Personal Information we collected from you and to tell our service providers to do the same, subject to certain exceptions where we are legally required to keep your Personal Information (“Request to Delete”).
3. Correct inaccurate personal information that we maintain about you (“Request to Correct”).
4. Limit the use and disclosure of sensitive personal information to that which is necessary to perform services or provide goods reasonably expected by an average consumer requesting those goods or services.
In addition, you have the right to be free from discrimination by a business for exercising your CCPA privacy rights, including the right as an employee, applicant, or independent contractor not to be retaliated against for exercising your CCPA privacy rights.

HOW TO MAKE REQUESTS

If you are a California resident you can make a Request to Know, Delete, or Correct by:

1. Contacting us though our compliance privacy line at (888) 313-4547
2. Submitting your request at privacy@cplc.org

For all other individuals, we will ask you to provide the following information to identify yourself:

- Name, contact information, social security or individual taxpayer identification number, date of birth; and
- A copy of government issued photo ID. We accept your Driver’s license, or State ID.

When you make a Request to Know, Delete, or Correct, we will attempt to verify that you are who you say you are. For example, we will attempt to match information that you provide in making your request with other sources of similar information to reasonably verify identity.

RESPONDING TO REQUESTS

Privacy and data protection laws, other than the CCPA, apply to much of the Personal Information that CPLC collects, uses, and discloses. When these other laws apply, Personal Information may be exempt from, or outside the scope of, a request to Know, Delete, or Correct. For example, information subject to certain federal privacy laws, such as the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act or the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act is exempt from CCPA Requests. As a result, we may decline all or part of your Request related to exempt Personal Information. This means that we may not provide some, or all, of this Personal Information when you make a Request to Know. Also, we may not delete or correct, some or all, of this Personal Information when you make a Request to Delete or Correct.

As examples, our processing of or response to a Request to Know, Delete, or Correct may not include some or all of the following Personal Information:
• Healthcare Patient Charts. Personal Information connected with Healthcare Patient Charts used for personal, family or household purposes. We have other privacy notices providing certain information on use and sharing of this data, for example, CPLC’s Privacy Notice, available at https://cplc.org/about/legal-privacy.php

AUTHORIZED AGENTS
If you are a California resident, you may authorize an agent to make a request on your behalf. A California resident’s authorized agent may make a request on behalf of the California resident by using the submission methods listed above under “How to Make Requests.” As part of our verification process, CPLC may request that you provide, as applicable:

• For an individual (“requestor”) making a request on behalf of a California resident:
  o The requestor’s name; contact information; social security or individual taxpayer identification number; date of birth; and Driver's License, or State ID.
  o The name; contact information; social security or individual taxpayer identification number; date of birth; and Driver's License, or State ID of the California resident on whose behalf the request is being made.
  o A document to confirm that the requestor is authorized to make the request. We may accept, as applicable, a signed permission by the California resident on whose behalf the request is made, copy of a power of attorney, legal guardianship or conservatorship order, or a birth certificate of a minor if the requestor is the custodial parent.

• For a company or organization (“legal entity requestor”) making a request on behalf of the California resident:
  o The legal entity requestor’s active registration with the California Secretary of State.
  o Proof that the California resident has authorized the legal entity requestor to make the request. CPLC accepts as applicable, a signed permission by the California resident on whose behalf the request is made, copy of power of attorney, or legal guardianship or conservatorship order.
  o The name; contact information; Social Security or individual taxpayer identification number; date of birth; Driver’s License and State ID of the California resident on whose behalf the request is being made. From the individual who is acting on behalf of the legal entity requestor, proof that the
